Sami,

Today is the deadline for filing non-dispositive motions so we will proceed with our motion. And the court provided us a hearing date (before we received your email) of December 9 at 3pm ET, as we will indicate in the forthcoming notice. If JBS would like to revisit its position on Topics 20 and 23, we are of course open to discussing further and if an agreement can be reached, we would withdraw the motion.

Thanks.

Mike

Heather,

Thank you for your email. Attached please find an amended notice, which contains a revised Topic 24. With that revision, please confirm whether the witness on Tuesday will be prepared to address that topic.

With respect to Topics 15, 16, 20, and 23, we have not revised those in the amended notice. We will plan to file a motion to compel on those topics assuming JBS maintains its objections and its refusal to provide a corporate designee on them. If there is anything else to discuss regarding those, please let us know.

Thanks.

Sarah,

Given that we received the revised set of topics on the Friday evening before labor day weekend, it is unreasonable to expect us to revert back by the Tuesday following Labor day (particularly given that we have been waiting for three weeks since our meet and confer). We will get back to you as soon as we can but given the breadth of the topics, and in light of Sysco's own 30b6 responses and objections, we think it will likely make sense to serve our responses and objections as soon as possible and go from there. We still expect the deposition to proceed on September 27.

Best,

Given other commitments, including the Dooley deposition and associated travel, it looks like Friday, Aug. 12 after 2 pm est would be best for us. Does that work on your end? If not, we can try to find some other times.

I've also copied my colleague, David Adler, into this email chain.

Thanks,
Sami

Sarah,

Confirming receipt now as I was traveling last week. Thanks for sending the draft notice. We are reviewing the draft and will discuss with JBS. Due to client travel and other conflicts, I think we should aim for a call to discuss next week sometime after the Lorenger deposition, and we will circle back later this week or early next week about setting that call up.

Thanks,
Sami
